

Klaassen Present Distinguished Service Award

03.10.2010

Bob Klaassen, registrar at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, was recently honored with a Distinguished Service Award by the Oklahoma Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. Klaassen plans to retire from SWOSU on July 1.

Bob Klaassen, registrar at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, was recently honored with a Distinguished Service Award by the Oklahoma Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.

Klaassen plans to retire July 1 of this year after serving as registrar and director of admissions at SWOSU since 1978.

Klaassen has been active in OACRAO since 1977 and has served in various leadership positions including president.

The 1964 SWOSU graduate has also been active in the Southern Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, Oklahoma Association of Veteran Coordinators and Counselors and Western Association of Veteran Education Specialists.