

SWOSU Plans Enrollment Sessions for High School Seniors

03.06.2008

Southwestern Oklahoma State University is gearing up for the first of six enrollment sessions for high school seniors.

The first session is Thursday, March 13, at 9 a.m. on the Weatherford campus. Over 160 students have already signed up.

Jena Skarda of the SWOSU New Student Orientation program said separate sessions will be held concurrently for students and family members. The student session will be in the Fine Arts Center, and family members will gather in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom.

Students must be admitted to the university before attending an enrollment session. Other NSO enrollment dates are:

- April 4
- April 22
- June 11
- July 14
- August 15
