

Dress for Success Event Planned Saturday

04.04.2017

The Society of Women Engineers collegiate chapter at SWOSU is hosting a “Dress for Success” program this Saturday, April 8, at 11 a.m. at the Stafford Air & Space Museum in Weatherford. Admission is free and everyone is invited.

Anna Brown, assistant apparel buyer & customer service manager for Balliets LLC, will have an in-depth discussion on how to professionally dress for interviews and in the workplace.

Following the program, a free guided museum tour will be held for anyone interested. You can RSVP for the event by filling out this form: <https://goo.gl/forms/JsgBUbeOdsrUNXfk2>
