EDITOR'S MESSAGE

As this message is being written, this school year is drawing to a close. This school year has brought many things to Sayre Jr. College—new faces, new ideas, progress in the form of a new dormitory—and an annual.

This annual, for a few people at least has been an idea, a lot of lost sleep, a lot of time, a lot of hard work, and most of all, a lot of fun. And so I take this opportunity to thank the student body for their support, the faculty for their patience and understanding, and the people of this area for their financial backing. But most of all I would like to thank the Annual Staff for their hard work. For without them this Annual would never have been printed.

The Annual Staff sincerely hopes that this Annual will keep alive and bring back pleasant memories of your year at Sayre Jr. College.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Audrey Bartlett". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned centrally below the text of the message.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Today our freedom brings great responsibilities. We cannot afford to endanger the future by limited visions, or set back and let others fulfill our task and endeavors.

The entire world is looking to this nation for leadership. Sayre Junior College is most happy to accept this challenge by assuming this responsibility in the training of our youth for tomorrow.

The administration and faculty of the Sayre Junior College pledge themselves to the task of expanding the curriculum to meet the needs of a changing world. We hope that every student leaving Sayre Junior College will continue his education and upon completing his course of study be engaged in work that will not only gain a livelihood, but be something each person enjoys doing.

We must stay alert; we must keep informed; and as never before we must realize eternal vigilance is the price of freedom.

IN ACTION

Whether she is serving cake at the Spaghetti supper or discussing school business on the telephone, Mrs. Fails is always ready to advise, help and encourage "her children".

ADMINISTRATION

S J C

STAFF

One of the brightest and most cheerful faces around is that of Carrol Phillips. Although her job is full-time secretary, she is always ready to help each and every student.

Jean Marie Macumber and Glenna Kirk, both students at SJC, are shown here at work in the office. Without these girls our school would be a less efficient place.

Mrs. Ruth Scofield serves as full-time secretary for Mr. Patterson. Although she is seldom seen by the college students, she is very much a part of SJC.

Just about everybody had a hand in the spaghetti supper.

Looks like some people just never give up.

Now swing your pardner

Some people you can't even pound sense into

No, I can't take dictation, but you should see me on the type-writer.

Hey gang -- Look what I caught!

You mean to tell me you didn't know people could talk too?

Things go better with coke,
rum, scotch, bourbon, vodka . .

Batgirl?

Harold, we're going to have to stop meeting like this, mom is getting suspicious . . .

and so I told him if he didn't shut up I'd . .

I'll be, it's got polywogs in it.

Excedrin headache No. 48

Now we'll take it from the third verse.

But I want to be a wall-flower.

You're right, it is only a silly millimeter longer.
