

SWOSU BSA Attends Big XII Leadership Conference

03.11.2008

BSA President Lauren Gladden with Stedman Graham, best-selling author and CE of Graham & Associates.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Black Student Association members recently attended the 31st annual Big XII Leadership Conference on Black Student Government. The conference was held in Stillwater and coincided with Black History Month. Keynote speakers included Stedman Graham and Vicky Miles-LaGrange.

Over 1,500 students from across the nation attended this year's conference. Making the trip possible for the SWOSU students was a grant from the Allocation Committee, according to BSA sponsor Steve Ray.