

2K Sports MLB Video Game Tour Coming to SWOSU

03.11.2008

The 2K Sports' third annual Major League Baseball video game tour is coming to Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford on Thursday, March 27.

SWOSU is the only location in Oklahoma for the tour. Other stops are in Arizona, California, Texas and New Mexico.

The mobile interactive entertainment experience will be held from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the SWOSU Wellness Center. The public is invited.

The tour highlights video games, music and sports. Gamers can participate in open play stations or compete in the Major League Baseball 2K8 Home Run Derby. Complimentary music cards and game demo discs will be given away.

The SWOSU event is considered part of the West Coast leg of the tour and will feature Sirius Satellite Radio DJ and emcee Statik Selektah.
