

AAUW Spring Luncheon Rescheduled for April 14

03.11.2014

The American Association of University Women spring luncheon that was postponed earlier this March because of icy weather has been rescheduled for Monday, April 14, on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

Ronda Mikles, president of Mikles' Marketing & Management, Inc. will be the featured speaker at the luncheon.

The luncheon, which is open to the public, will be held at 12 noon in the Pioneer Cellular Event Center Skyview Suite. Tickets are $15 and available from any AAUW member, Administration Building Room 205 or by calling 580.774.3063. Tickets already purchased for the early March date will be honored.

"Laughter Truly is the Best Medicine" will be the topic of Mikles' talk at the luncheon.

Mikles' company is a consulting firm that specializes in customer relations seminars, staff development workshops, sales and motivational conferences as well as retreats.
