

SWOSU Plans Coed Cheerleading and Pom Squad Tryouts

03.23.2009

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's coed cheerleading team and the pom squad are holding tryouts on Saturday, April 4, on the Weatherford campus.

Coach McKenzie Talcott said the tryouts are for the 2009-2010 school year. Tryouts for the mascot position will be held at a later date.

Talcott said a mandatory clinic will be held Friday evening, April 3, when participants will learn what they need to know for the tryouts on Saturday. The pom squad tryouts will begin at 9 a.m. and the cheerleading tryouts will start at 12 noon in Rankin Williams Fieldhouse.

Tryouts are open to all males and females. Scholarships, tuition waivers, and dorm waivers are available for all enrolled students.

Requirements can be found on the SWOSU website or individuals can contact Talcott for more information at 580.331-7827 or e-mail kenzietalcott@hotmail.com.
