

Urinetown the Musical Opens This Week at SWOSU

03.28.2011

Little Sally (played by Bethany Schmidt of Enid) and Officer Lockstock (played by David Day of Morris) contemplate the play's title in Southwestern Oklahoma State University Theatre's Urinetown: The Musical that runs March 31 through April 5 on the Weatherford campus. One of the most uproariously funny musicals in recent years, according to director Steve Strickler, Urinetown is a hilarious tale of greed, corruption, love and revolution in a time when water is worth its weight in gold.

Urinetown will take place at the SWOSU Hilltop Theatre 7:30 p.m. nightly on March 31, April 1, 2, 4 and 5 and at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 3. Reservations can be made at the SWOSU Hilltop Theatre box office Monday through Friday from 4-6 p.m. or by calling 580.774.6046. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for non-SWOSU students and free for individuals with a valid SWOSU ID.

The Rebel Poor sing of their revolution in Southwestern Oklahoma State University Theatre's Urinetown: The Musical that opens March 31 and continues through April 5 on the Weatherford campus.
