

ONABDC Sponsoring Seminar on SWOSU Campus

07.22.2005

The Oklahoma Native American Business Development Center will provide a two-hour seminar this Tuesday, July 26, on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus in Weatherford.

The seminar will center on business development and contracting opportunities with the state and federal government. The seminar begins at 10 a.m. in the SWOSU Conference Center.

At the workshop, the ONABDC staff will cover subjects such as what lenders look at before making a loan, bonding requirements, the various contracting information available through the center, and understanding financial statements.

The ONABDC is funded by the U.S. Department of Commerce through the Minority Business Development Agency, located at 3540 E. 31st Street, Suite 5, Tulsa OK 74135. ONABDC provides business assistance free of charge to Native Americans and other minority owned companies and tribes within Oklahoma.

For further information or details and to reserve a seat at the seminar, call (918) 592-1113 or (866) 662-2321.
