Distinguished Alumni

Debbie Blackburn served in the Oklahoma House of Representatives from 1994 to 2006. During her time in the Oklahoma Legislature, Prior to her election to the Legislature, Blackburn taught in the Altus Public Schools. Since leaving legislative service, she has served as co-founder and president of the Paseo District Redevelopment Corporation. Blackburn is a trustee of the Oklahoma Housing Finance Authority and sits on the MAPS 3 Streetcar Subcommittee.

Blackburn has received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Neighborhood Alliance, Treasure For Tomorrow Award from the Oklahoma Health Sciences Foundation, and is the 10th inductee into the SWOSU Presidential Order of Merit. A native of Woodward, Blackburn is married to 2010 SWOSU Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame inductee Dr. Bob Blackburn (SWOSU Class of 1973). The Blackburns enjoy spending time with their son, daughter-in-law and grandson.

Gary Gackstatter is an active artist, composer, conductor, clinician, performer and teacher, teaching at St. Louis Community College-Meramec since 2007 as coordinator of music and conductor of the Symphonic Band and Meramec Orchestra. He has served as conductor at Cowley College, Southwestern College and Wichita State University, all in Kansas, and has 12 years of public school teaching experience. He holds degrees from SWOSU and Wichita State University.

Gackstatter is a two-time Kansas Governor's Arts Award Winner and is the 2017 Missouri Humanities Council Excellence in Education Award winner. Gackstatter has composed six symphonies, each combining music with other arts. Gackstatter has authored three books: Your Musical Journey (Kendall-Hunt), a music appreciation textbook; Pen and Ink, a book of his writings and drawings, and, most recently, The Spark: Notes from the Podium, a series of short meditations on teaching music.

Harvey Minton is a native of Oakwood. Minton completed graduate studies at the Pennsylvania State University Executive Management Program in 1973 following his undergraduate studies at SWOSU. From 1983-87 when he served as vice president of tax for Conoco, Inc. From 1987-89, Minton served as director of business services of polymer products for DuPont & Nemours & Co. And, from 1990-2000, he was vice president of tax for DuPont & Co.

Minton has been an active member of the American Coal Association Tax Committee, Federal Income Tax Study Group, American Mining Congress, and the National Association of Manufacturers Tax Committee. Minton served over 14 years as a trustee of the SWOSU Foundation, and is a Founder-level investor in the SWOSU Bulldog Angels Fund. He is the 35th inductee into the SWOSU Presidential Order of Merit. Minton and his wife, Jean, enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren.

Harold Wright is serving his 12th year in the Oklahoma House of Representatives and his fourth year as Speaker Pro Tempore. Wright, a native of Weatherford, graduated in 1971 with a BA in speech and political science. Wright worked in programming and sales at KWEY Radio in Weatherford. He was sales manager at WMBR radio in Jacksonville (FL) before becoming general manager of KRPT Radio in Anadarko. Wright purchased KWEY and moved back to Weatherford in 1991. Since then he has added stations in nearby Clinton, Cordell and Elk City and now operates five radio stations.

Wright was mayor of Anadarko from 1985-87, and president of the Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters in 1986. Wright has been an active member of Rotary Club for over 40 years. He served as president of the SWOSU Alumni Association from 2003-2004. He and his wife Carol have two children, Angela and Heston.

The late Edward Earl Beck was born on the home farm between Fay and Oakwood in 1935. He passed away in 2004. He graduated from Oakwood High School in 1953 and later obtained his undergraduate and graduate degrees from SWOSU. Beck served his country in the National Guard in 1957-1958.

Beck married Freida Mae Hamar and they had two children, David and Lora. Beck taught school at Fay, Oakwood, Watonga and Thomas.

He served as assistant principal at Watonga Junior High and later served as elementary principal at Fay and Thomas. Beck served as state president for the Oklahoma Association of Elementary School Principals and as a federal legislative coordinator for the National Association of Elementary School Principals from 1990 to 1993. He served on the Western Plains Library System governing board and as an officer of the Oakwood Alumni Association.
