04.16.2015

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Student Government Association President Taylor Kincanon (right) recently presented a $1,491 check to the SWOSU Foundation as the result of the recent SWOSUPalooza held on the Weatherford campus. Accepting was Executive Director Garrett King. Proceeds of the donations given by attendees at the event were donated to the Bulldog Angels Fund, a charitable endeavor at the SWOSU Foundation, Inc. that was started in 2014 by SWOSU Distinguished Alumnus Bill Howell. The fund provides relief to students facing crisis or hardship. Howell said he is grateful to the SGA for choosing the Bulldog Angels Fund as the beneficiary of this year's event and, in turn, lending a helping hand to their fellow students. Gifts can be made to the Bulldog Angels Fund, c/o SWOSU Foundation, Inc., 100 Campus Drive, Weatherford OK 73096, or online at swosu.edu/foundation.
