

Wilson New Web Services Manager at SWOSU

04.18.2006

Karen Wilson is the new web services manager at SWOSU.

Wilson came to SWOSU from the Western Technology Center in Burns Flat where she served as WTC webmaster and taught web design and video production classes since 2001.

She was a teacher at Clinton Public Schools from 1990-2001. She taught keyboarding at Clinton Middle School and vocational business at Clinton High School. She was named Teacher of the Year for Clinton Public Schools in 1999-2000.

Wilson is a 1990 graduate of SWOSU and is currently a graduate student in the Master of Business Administration program. She and her husband, Jeff, live in Clinton and they have two daughters.

Wilson manages the SWOSU website, which can be accessed at www.swosu.edu.