

SWOSU Jazz Ensembles Plan Final Spring Concert this Friday

04.18.2016

The SWOSU Jazz Ensembles will conclude the 2015-16 concert season with a performance this Friday, April 22, on the Weatherford campus.

The free 7 p.m. concert will be held in the Fine Arts Center. The public is invited.

The concert will feature a wide variety of jazz styles from swing to contemporary including the tune, "The Shadow of your Smile," which will feature senior trombonist Myles Madden. Other composers slated for the evening include Frank Mantooth, Neal Hefti, Sammy Nestico and tunes that were made famous by the Count Basie band and Radiohead.

The ensembles are led by SWOSU Assistant Professor of Music Dr. Richard Tirk and aided by graduate teaching assistant Alexander Davis.

For additional information, contact the SWOSU Music Department at (580) 774 3708.