

SWOSU Students Honored at Physics Banquet

04.24.2017

Southwestern Oklahoma State University physics alumni, students, staff and friends recently attended the 36th annual Physics Spring Banquet held at the Stafford Air & Space Museum in Weatherford. SWOSU students were honored with various awards. Among those receiving awards were (front from left): Cameron Cinnamon, Garber, $500 Physics Alumni Scholarship; and $500 Garabed Armoudian Scholarship; Brennon Cupp, Woodward, Distinguished Service Award; Jaxon Taylor, Mustang, $1000 Ray C. Jones Memorial Scholarship; and Sigma Pi Sigma Inductee; and Emily Trail, Weatherford, $1000 Benny Hill Scholarship. Back from left—Boubacar Wane, Mali, $1500 J.R. Pratt Scholarship, Outstanding Mid-classman Award and Sigma Pi Sigma Inductee; John Eze, Nambia, $1000 Arthur McClelland Memorial Scholarship; John Paul Woods, Mustang, J.R. Pratt Outstanding Physics Student Award; Garet Crispin, Thomas, $1000 Benny Hill Scholarship; Sushant Bhatta, Nepal, $1500 J.R. Pratt Scholarship and Sigma Pi Sigma Inductee;