

Dr. Treva Graham to Speak at SWOSU-Sayre Convocation

04.25.2017

Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Sayre will hold its 74th annual Spring Convocation exercise on Thursday, May 4, at 7 p.m. at the Sayre Public Schools Auditorium.

Treva Graham, MD, will serve as guest speaker for the 99 graduates who are slated to earn their Associate in Science or Associate in Applied Science degrees.

Graham is currently the medical director at the Clinton VA Center and owner of Graham Medical Clinic in Sayre.

She graduated as valedictorian of her class from Sentinel High School in 1971 and then earned degrees from the University of Central Oklahoma, SWOSU and the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine. She was a teacher for 15 years before deciding to attend medical school.

Graham taught high school and junior high life sciences at Sayre from 1976 to 1982. She worked as a Department of Human Services case worker in Beckham County for one year and then taught high school and junior high life sciences at Elk City from 1986 to 1995.

She was formerly employed as a physician at Sayre Memorial Hospital from 2002 through 2012 and maintains privileges at Great Plains Regional Medical Center in Elk City.

She is a member of the AMA, OSMA, AAFP and OAFP professional organizations. Graham is also a member of the Beckham County Health Department Board, CASA Board for Western Oklahoma, PEO in Sayre and past member of the Beckham-Roger Mills Child Abuse Task Force Team.

Graham and her husband, Jim, have been married for 38 years. They are members of the Sayre Church of Christ. They have three children; Donna Jo Whinery-Ferenczy of Ozark, Missouri; Wes Graham of Carter; and Cade Graham of Sayre. They also have three grandchildren.
