Southwestern Oklahoma State University Theatre will present the completely student-driven production titled The King of Hearts is Lonely this Thursday and Friday, April 15-16, on the Weatherford campus.

Written by SWOSU student Tyler Powell of Woodward and directed by SWOSU student Dayna Robinson of Altus, the children's production focuses on the King of Hearts who is trying to find something or someone to make him happy. Meanwhile, the Queen of Diamonds is trying to steal the King of Hearts' heart candies and take over Heartdom. The journey that Jester and Jack take the King on to find happiness will please audiences of all ages-both young and young at heart, according to SWOSU instructor Steve Strickler.

The production times are 7:30 p.m. each night in the SWOSU Hilltop Theatre. Call the box office to reserve tickets at 580.774.6046. The office is open Monday through Friday from 3-6 p.m. Seating is limited. Tickets for adults are $5, non-SWOSU students are $3, and admission is free for individuals with a valid SWOSU ID.
