

Wootton Honored by OSCP

04.05.2007

SWOSU Assistant Professor Dr. Patsy Wootton was named the 2007 Outstanding Accounting Educator at the annual Oklahoma Accounting Educators' Conference held recently in Tulsa. The award is sponsored by the Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants. Making the presentation is Mike McCrary, professor at the University of Tulsa and chair of the OSCP Liaisons with Educational Institutions Committee.

The Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants recently named SWOSU Assistant Professor Dr. Patsy Wootton as the 2007 Outstanding Accounting Educator at the annual Oklahoma Accounting Educators' Conference held in Tulsa.

Wootton teaches on the SWOSU-Sayre campus.

Wootton began her teaching career in 1982 at Sayre Junior High School, where she taught seventh and eighth grade. "Providing education to others while pursuing my own continuing professional education is the focus of my career," Wootton said.

In addition to the OAE prize, the OSCP will give a scholarship to an accounting student from SWOSU on Wootton's behalf.

With more than 6,000 members in public practice, industry, government and education, the OSCP is Oklahoma's only statewide professional association of CPAs.
