

Homecoming King Queen Candidates Announced at SWOSU

09.14.2005

Homecoming king and queen candidates at Southwestern Oklahoma State University have been announced for the 2005 celebration coming up September 24 on the Weatherford campus. The SWOSU student body will narrow the list to three finalists during voting that takes place September 16. The homecoming king and queen will be announced at the 6 p.m. football game on September 24. Among the candidates are (front from left): Brittany Moody, Oklahoma City, sponsored by Black Student Association; Sarah Quinn, Yukon, Nursing Department; Heidi Villines, Weatherford, Kappa Epsilon; Misha Prichard, Weatherford, Alpha Psi Omega; Randilyn Warner, Moore, Zeta Phi; Marce Muller, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Hall; Laura Leigh Alton, Blair, Stewart Hall; Arianna Bedell, Yukon, Political Science Association; and Amanda Williams, Clinton, Social Work Association. Back from left—Pat Hixon, Woodward, sponsored by Rogers & Jefferson Hall; Zac Dumas, Watonga, Kappa Gamma Beta; Tim White, Oklahoma City, Neff Hall; Lucas Grounds, Guymon, Political Science Association; and Kirk Hatton, Garber, Nursing Department.