

Miss SWOSU Titleholders Ready for Contestant Day

04.10.2014

~~Hailey~~

~~Raetz~~

Miss

SWOSU's

Outstanding

Teen

Miss SWOSU Hailey Raetz of Hydro and Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Evan Mazur of Cache will be attending Miss Oklahoma Contestants' Day this Saturday, April 12, in Tulsa at Holland Hall School's Walter Arts Center.

All titleholders across Oklahoma will perform the talents that they will be showcasing during Miss Oklahoma Week later this summer. Their talents will be judged and the winner of the Miss and Teen Competition will be awarded cash prizes. The titleholders will also select their placement for the Miss Oklahoma Pageant week in June.

Raetz will play the piano and perform Chopin's "Revolutionary" Étude. Raetz's platform is titled The Loudest Voice: Make the Selfless Choice. Mazur will sing "You'll Never Walk Alone," and she will present her platform, T.N.T.: Teaching NOT Testing.

Miss SWOSU Pageant Director Debbie Brown said there are 47 Miss Oklahoma contestants and 34 Teen contestants competing for titles.