

SWOSU PBL Wins 10 First Place Awards at State Competition

04.14.2010

The SWOSU chapter of Phi Beta Lambda won an impressive group of awards at the recent state competition of PBL held in Norman. Pictured with some of the awards are SWOSU students (from left) Heather Leach, Owasso; Kelsey Zybach, Briscoe TX; Kelsey Boone, Vici; and Sa'Vana McDannald, Vici.

Students of Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Everett Dobson School of Business and Technology in Weatherford recently won 10 first place awards at a recent Phi Beta Lambda statewide competition held in Norman.

The SWOSU chapter received first place in Public Relations and second place in the Outstanding Chapter category for Oklahoma.

Students winning awards at the 2010 PBL conference are:

Kelsey Boone, Vici	1 st in Future Business Executive 1 st in Sports Management and Marketing
James Burns, Cheyenne	1 st in Contemporary Sports Issues 3 rd in Impromptu Speaking
Blake Bustin, Elk City	2 nd in Contemporary Sports Issues 3 rd in Computer Applications
Dalton Holdge, Fort Cobb	2 nd in Business Facts 3 rd in Accounting Principles 3 rd in Business Law
Heather Leach, Owasso	1 st in Public Speaking 2 nd in Job and Career Readiness 3 rd in Marketing Concepts
Sa'Vana McDannald, Vici	1 st in Sales Presentation 3 rd in Business Communication
Brandon Phillips, Elk City	1 st in Computer Concepts 1 st in Help Desk
Sara Thomas, Weatherford	2 nd in Justice Administration
Kelsey Zybach, Briscoe TX	1 st in Client Service 1 st in Financial Analysis and Decision Making

3rd in Leadership
SWOSU's Who's Who in PBL
Recipient

"Simply the Best" was the theme for 2010 state conference and SWOSU participation was partially funded by SWOSU student fees. Dr. Patsy Parker and Dr. Tami Moser are advisors of the local chapter and accompanied the students on the trip. Dr. Patsy Parker was also recognized for her 10 years of service to PBL.

PBL is the collegiate division of the national association Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda, Inc.