

SWOSU Disc Dawgs Finish 58th at National Tourney

04.30.2015

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Disc Dawgs finished 58th at the recent National Collegiate Disc Golf Championship Tourney in North Augusta, S.C. During the four-day event, both Mason Snider (far right) of Duncan and Matt Mauldin (third from left) of Beggs made hole-in-ones, two of only 15 made during the entire tourney. Other SWOSU students participating at the national tourney were (from left) Austin Carter of Oklahoma City (Putnam City North) and John Srader of Shattuck.
