Southwestern Oklahoma State University now has an impressive bulldog sculpture on the Weatherford campus.

A dedication ceremony was held April 17 for Duke, the new bronze bulldog, which is approximately 4 feet tall and 5 feet long and located just south of the clock tower.

The sculpture was designed and built by Frank Moran of Weatherford. The SWOSU Alumni Association Board of Directors organized the project, which was made possible by Jim Andrews and E. Vann Greer Andrews of Edmond who generously donated money to cover the entire cost of the $30,000 project.
