Following enormously successful solo tours, Colin Mochrie and Brad Sherwood, stars of the Emmy-nominated Whose Line Is It Anyway television program, have teamed up to present an evening of extraordinary improvisational comedy.

The pair will be at Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Panorama series on Tuesday, October 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center on the Weatherford campus. Advance tickets for the event are $10 for SWOSU students and $20 for non-SWOSU students. If any tickets are available at the door, the price is $25.

Brian Adler, chair of the Panorama Committee, said ticket sales have gone very well. As of September 23, only 450 out of 1,350 tickets remain for the event. Tickets are available at the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office, Room 205 of the Administration Building, and at the SWOSU Business Office, Room 109 of the Administration Building. Tickets can also be purchased with a credit card by calling 580.774.3019.

Mochrie and Sherwood have quickly become one of the hottest improv teams around. Their high-profile presentations have played to sold-out crowds all over the country, and they are scheduled to perform yet this year at Caesar's Palace in Atlantic City and the Las Vegas Hilton in Las Vegas. Colin and Brad take contributions from the audience to create hilarious and original scenes. Throughout the evening, the show becomes interactive as audience members are called to the stage to participate in the fun to create unforgettable laugh-out-loud scenes.

Additional information about the event is available by calling 580.774.3063.
