

Domestic Violence Workshop Planned at SWOSU

04.12.2007

A Domestic Violence Awareness Workshop is planned this Thursday, April 19, at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The workshop, sponsored by the SWOSU Psychology Club, will be at 7 p.m. at the SWOSU Conference Center, located at the corner of Seventh and Davis Streets in Weatherford. Admission is free.

According to Melissa Hall of the club, local legal and mental health services representatives will discuss what is and what's not domestic violence from both legal and psychological perspectives as well as how domestic violence can be handled legally and psychologically.

For additional information, contact the SWOSU Psychology Department at 580.774.3725.