

Bulldog Bazaar Looking for Vendors and Entertainers

05.10.2016

A new event—Bulldog Bazaar—that started in 2015 will be back in 2016.

As part of Parent's Day activities this fall at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, the SWOSU Staff Council is planning the bazaar again and is looking for vendors and entertainers for the Saturday, September 24, event.

The SWOSU Bulldog Bazaar will be held from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Wellness Center. Admission for visitors will be free. Shirley Venable said the council is looking for all sorts of booths.

"The first bazaar was a successful and fun time so we look forward to having a variety of crafts, artists, furniture, home products and more this year," Venable said.
