Miss Southwestern Tia Sauer (left) of Weatherford and Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Ashlee Shryock of Shattuck participated in the Miss Oklahoma Pageant Contestants Day on April 13 in Jenks.

Miss Southwestern Tia Sauer of Weatherford and Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Ashlee Shryock of Shattuck now know their groups that they will participate in at this summer's Miss Oklahoma Pageant after the two participated in this past weekend's Miss Oklahoma Contestants Day in Jenks.

The event brought all 46 Miss contestants and 34 Teen contestants, along with their directors and families, together to present talents, attend meetings and fittings, and select participant groupings. Contestants draw numbers to choose groups during the June 2-8 competition.

Sauer will be in the Mu Group, setting her schedule as follows: Individual Interview – Monday morning; Swimsuit Competition – Tuesday's first preliminary; Talent Competition – Wednesday's second preliminary; On Stage Question and Evening Wear Competition – Thursday's third preliminary; and Final Competition – Saturday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m.

Shryock will participate in the Omega Group with the following schedule: Individual Interview – Wednesday; Talent Competition – Thursday's first preliminary; Active Wear and On Stage Question/Evening Wear – Friday's second preliminary; and Final Competition – Friday, June 7, at 7:30 p.m.

Final competitions will be held in the Mabee Center on the Tulsa campus of Oral Roberts University.

Tickets go on sale for the Miss Oklahoma Pageant on May 1. Call 918.495.6000 or visit www.missoklahoma.org to make reservations.
