

Sayre Spanish Class Begins Teaching English as Second Language

04.23.2014

SWOSU at Sayre's Language and Literature Department has teamed up with the Oklahoma Department of Libraries' literacy resource office to assist in teaching English as a second language courses.

Students enrolled in a sophomore-level Spanish class, instructed by Judy Haught, travel to the Western Oklahoma Learning Center in Elk City to help Hispanic students learn English. The service learning project will be featured in the Oklahoma Literacy News publication.

For more information or to assist in the project, contact Haught at judy.haught@swosu.edu.
