

Over 200 Featured at SWOSU Research and Scholarly Activity Fair

04.24.2014

Around 200 Southwestern Oklahoma State University students and faculty participated in the recent 21st annual Research and Scholarly Activity Fair held on the Weatherford campus.

The event gives students the opportunity to present their research and other scholarly activity in poster or podium presentation formats. Many of the presentations have been or will be presented at various organizational events at the state, regional and national levels.

This year's fair also featured special musical performances by Mshal Almaqbal who performed two pieces of Saudi Arabian music, and Dr. Richard Tirk and the SWOSU Trumpet Ensemble that performed "Fanfare for Argestes."

Six students from the Western Technology Center Biomedical Academy in Burns Flat, sponsored by Director Jana Rowland, also presented at the fair. The students presenting included: Brooke Battles, Kendahl Camblin, Megan Foust, Lauren Russ, Charles Spells and Jesse Velasco. High school students from Canute, Geary and Yukon also visited the fair.

The fair was sponsored by the University Research and Scholarly Activity Committee and the SWOSU Office of Sponsored Programs. Committee members include: Dr. Jason Johnson, chair; Dr. Randy Barnett; Dr. Denise Landrum-Geyer; Dr. Evette Meliza; Dr. Tami Moser; Jess Parker; Dr. Faruk Khan; Dr. Muatasem Ubeidat; Dr. Richard Tirk; and Dr. Lori Gwyn.
