Miss SWOSU Jenna Crispin of Taloga and Miss SWOSU's Outstanding Teen Lauren Russ of Cordell will be attending Miss Oklahoma Contestants' Day this Saturday, April 14, in Jenks.

All titleholders across Oklahoma will perform the talents that they will be showcasing during Miss Oklahoma Week later this summer. Their talents will be judged and the winner of the Miss and Teen Competition will be awarded cash prizes of 1st place $300; 2nd place $200; and 3rd place $100 each.

Crispin will sing Cry for her talent and Russ will play the piano and sing a song that she co-wrote entitled Seasons.

Miss SWOSU Pageant Director Debbie Brown said the contestants will be selecting their placement for the week of Miss Oklahoma. There are 45 Miss Oklahoma contestants and 35 Teen contestants.
