

SOSUNSA Sponsoring Stress Booth

04.30.2008

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Student Nursing Association is hosting a stress booth on Wednesday, April 30, from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center lobby on the Weatherford campus.

SOSUNSA members will hand out information on stress management and coping with stress during finals. They will also have drawings for two 30-minute massages from Your Time Salon.

Paula Sharry of the organization said the activity is sponsored in part by SWOSU student activity fees.
