Live Radio Broadcast!
 Featuring SWOSU Theatre in collaboration with special guests from SWOSU Music

A Live Broadcast Partnership
 95.5 FM and kwey.com

The first of three parts of a live radio show will be presented this Thursday, October 22, by the Southwestern Oklahoma State University Department of Art, Communication and Theatre and the Department of Music.

In partnership with Wright Wradio, Anthony E. Palermo's Rick Lowell, Private Eye – 'The Stuff That Dreams are Made Of' will air live on 95.5 FM The Coyote from the SWOSU Hilltop Theatre. The radio show will be staged and broadcast over three different nights: Part I on October 22, Part II on October 29 and Part III on November 5 at 7 p.m. nightly.

The company is comprised of voice actors, technicians, sound effects artists, musicians and designers. Reminiscent of the 1940s & 50s radio programming, the show will feature live sound effects and music of the 1940s. The play is a detective story set in 1942 Los Angeles.

Everyone is invited to tune in for the production. For more information, contact Steve Strickler at 580-774-3082/steve.strickler@swosu.edu or Jessica Salmans at 580-774-7046/jessica.salmans@swosu.edu.
