

SWOSU-Sayre Personnel Honored

10.26.2005

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Sayre campus support personnel were honored recently at a recognition reception.

Librarian Janice Hodge was honored for 20 years of service. Terry Billey, administrative assistant to the Sayre dean, was honored for 10 years of service. Susie Campbell, business office secretary, was also honored for recently earning her master's degree.

SWOSU Provost Dr. Blake Sonobe was on the Sayre campus to make presentations to three staff members being honored for years of service and degree attainment. Other administrators in attendance were Associate Provost Dr. Cindy Foust and Sayre Dean Dr. Jim James.

Serving as hostess for the event was Terry Billey, Sayre representative for the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.

Librarian Janice Hodge was honored for 20 years of service.

Terry Billey, administrative assistant to the Sayre dean, was honored for 10 years of service.

Susie Campbell, business office secretary, was honored for earning her master's degree.