VI. ANNOUNCEMENTS

A. President Fred Gates

1. There was no Executive Council meeting, next meeting is in September.
2. There was no Administrative Council meeting, next meeting is in September.
3. From the Provost:
 - a. The Faculty Handbook is currently being edited to reflect the new RUSO policies concerning sexual harassment and consensual relationships. The new grade change policies are also being added. Also, the formatting issues have been resolved so the Handbook will be easier to read. Hopefully all updates will be finished prior to the beginning of classes.
 - b. There will also be a few changes in the organizational chart once the new Staff Council is reconstituted under new by-laws approved by the President. It will serve as a recommending body to the Executive Vice-President.
 - c. Just a reminder that SWOSU is a tobacco free campus. Enforcement of this policy, however, is still problematic.

- d. There has been a great deal of confusion regarding summer compensation in courses taught for tuition only. SWOSU policy is that faculty cannot earn more than 20% of their regular salary for the summer. Unfortunately, calculations for summer pay are not uniform across campus and this has created most of the confusion. We will work this year to develop a uniform policy.
- e. Fall enrollment is down about 2% over last year.
- f. The Distance Learning Committee has developed a rubric for online course development. This rubric is intended to create a minimum set of standards and criteria that need to be included in all online courses. Initially, this rubric will apply only to newly developed courses. However, it will eventually be applied to all online courses. Faculty should have about an 18 month “heads up” for existing courses. The committee will submit a draft of the rubric to both the Provost and to Faculty Senate for approval.
- g. Final decisions regarding the course management system used by SWOSU are currently being made. It is unclear if we will continue with D2L but we should know very soon. Students are requesting that all faculty use the course management system to post syllabi, class lists, assignments, handouts, etc. The Provost would like to know how the faculty feels about this. Should this be required of all courses or should instructors continue to use the system as they so choose?
- h. The Provost is exploring various ways to increase New Faculty Development. Whether it is through increased orientation, spending our money better by focusing on specific areas or what not, he would like faculty input regarding this matter.

Senate Motion 2013-07-01

It is proposed that the membership of the University's General Education Committee be changed by adding an additional member from the College of Arts and Sciences.

Rational: The Faculty Handbook currently states that the committee is composed of seven (7) faculty members: three (3) from the College of Professional and Graduate Studies; two (2) from the College of Arts and Sciences; one (1) from the College of Pharmacy; and one (1) from the Sayre Campus. Committee members serve three year terms. Members of the committee are nominated by the Dean of each college and appointed by the Provost. Up to two (2) student members are appointed by the Student Government Association who serve annually. The Chair is elected by the committee. The Associate Provost is an ex officio member.

Since a large number of GE classes are taught by faculty in the Arts and Sciences, and proposed changes to the GE curriculum originate from this committee, CAS needs to be properly represented.

Motion was approved by voice vote.

Senate Motion 2013-07-02:

It is proposed that the SWOSU Faculty Handbook be amended to reflect the inclusion of tenured library faculty for the following standing committees: Faculty University Promotion and Tenure Review Committee (FUPTRC), University Promotion and Tenure Appeals Committee, and the University Research and Scholarly Activity Committee.

Rationale: With the presence of tenured library faculty at SWOSU, these three standing committees need to include representation of SWOSU Libraries faculty. These changes reflect consistency with the approved changes made to the Faculty Handbook in April 2012 regarding library faculty.
