

Free Late Night Breakfast Planned for All SWOSU Students

04.24.2013

The free President's Late-Night Pancake Breakfast at Southwestern Oklahoma State University will be held Wednesday, May 1, from 10-11:30 p.m. in Duke's Diner on the Weatherford campus.

Each semester hundreds of students fill Duke's Diner to eat pancakes and sausage made and served by the president, deans, vice presidents and directors of SWOSU. The event takes place right before the start of finals, which start on May 2.

"This is a very fun and stress-relieving study break that many students look forward to," said Collegiate Activities Board Director Zac Gulick. "Students can come and chow down."

CAB will be giving goodie bags to lucky SWOSU students. The breakfast is free and open to all students whether on a meal plan or not.
