

Bergman Publishes 300th Article

11.11.2005

Dr. David Bergman

Dr. David Bergman, dean of the College of Pharmacy at Southwestern Oklahoma State University, recently wrote an article for the latest edition of Community Pharmacist.

The article was Bergman's 300th article that has been published in various pharmaceutical professional journals.

The latest article was entitled "Myasthenia Gravis & Its Treatment." The article appeared in the September-October issue of Community Pharmacist.

Bergman has been dean of the SWOSU College of Pharmacy since 1988.
