

Students Chosen for SWOSU-Sayre Radiology Program

07.13.2017

Nineteen students were recently accepted into the Southwestern Oklahoma State University-Sayre Radiologic Technology Program.

They are:

- April Arnold, Weatherford
- Kristen Jones, Altus
- Karen Stansbury, Weatherford
- Rebekah Schmidt, Weatherford
- Krista Barber, Sayre
- Janet Medina, Clinton
- Matthew Poole, Elk City
- Marlen Cruz, Hollis
- Courtney Calvert, Weatherford
- Breann McKillip, Sentinel
- Kristen Price, Elk City
- Sheena Clouser, Granite
- Ashley Taylor, Mountain View
- Shay Henderson, Cheyenne
- Allison Shepherd, Elk City
- Michaela Monroe, El Reno
- Erin DeRocher, Elk City
- Cassandra Rogers, Sayre
- Kaye Ervin, Snyder

"These students will be great additions to the program," said SWOSU-Sayre Radiologic Technology Director Jess Parker.

According to Parker, program admission is competitive. The 19 students who were admitted were selected from a large pool of individuals who applied and sat for interviews before a panel of medical and educational professionals.

The two-year Radiologic Technology program includes classroom instruction as well as on-site clinical experience. Students eventually sit for a national certification exam.

The fall semester begins August 21, and enrollment for all classes is underway.
