

SWOSU Mind Games Team Plays Quarterfinals this Wednesday

04.23.2012

The SWOSU Mind Games team hopes to continue its winning ways on Wednesday, April 25, when SWOSU takes on Cameron University in the buzzer-quiz type game on KSBI-TV in Oklahoma City. Team members on the KSBI-TV set are (from left): Zeke Mills, Springfield (MO); Jim Ferguson, Elk City; Gaston Hart, Edmond (Santa Fe); Erika Christner, Drummond; Coach Dr. Kevin Collins; and Tanner Fisher, Calumet.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University will play its quarterfinal match of the Mind Games competition on Wednesday, April 25, at 8 p.m. on KSBI-TV in Oklahoma City.

SWOSU will play Cameron University after defeating Connors State College, 450-30, in its opener.

SWOSU is competing against other Oklahoma colleges and universities in this second season of Mind Games, which is a buzzer-quiz game comparable to Quiz Bowl or Jeopardy. The game is based on knowledge in all academic fields, and students compete for scholarship money.

The team is coached by Dr. Kevin Collins and team members are: Zeke Mills, Springfield MO; Gaston Hart, Edmond (Santa Fe); Tanner Fisher, Calumet; Erika Christner, Drummond; and Jim Ferguson, Elk City.
