

Misak, Walenciak Named December Employees in the Spotlight

12.06.2005

Doug Misak

Jonelle Walenciak

Doug Misak and Jonelle Walenciak are the employees in the spotlight during the month of December at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Misak is the business coordinator for the Oklahoma Small Business Development Center at SWOSU. He has worked at SWOSU for almost two years. He and his wife, Pam, have two sons, Chris and Matt. They live in Colony and attend the Colony Presbyterian Church. Misak received his bachelor's degree from SWOSU and his master's degree in business administration from Oklahoma City University. He is a volunteer for the Colony Fire Department and is involved in the Washita County 2000 project. He enjoys farming and ranching.

Walenciak is the secretary for the SWOSU Distance Learning Center. She has worked at the university for two years. She and her husband, Paul, have three children and seven grandchildren. She came to Weatherford when her husband began working at the SWOSU Center for Economic and Business Development. She attends the Grace Assembly of God Church. She enjoys fishing, boating and spending time with her family. Walenciak said she enjoys living and working in Weatherford.

The employee spotlight program is sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.