

Billey Named CATC Regent

05.05.2014

Terry Billey, registrar at Southwestern Oklahoma State University-Sayre, has been elected to serve on the Board of Regents for the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribal College (CATC).

SWOSU partners with CATC to offer fully accredited and transferable course credits and granting two and four degrees to its students. The college is housed on the SWOSU campus in Weatherford.

Billey will assist to manage the property, affairs and business of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribal College.

Billey received her Associate in Science degree from Sayre Junior College and earned a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership from SWOSU. She and her husband, Carl, live in Sayre. They have two children, Alyson Dowdell and husband Shawn of Sayre, and Ty Billey of Durham.

She has been employed with SWOSU for nearly 19 years. Billey's first opportunity to attend a CATC Regents Board meeting will be in June 2014.
