

SWOSU Mind Games Team Plays in Semis this Sunday

05.06.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Mind Games team will play a semifinal match this Sunday, May 12, at 6 p.m. on KSBI-TV in Oklahoma City. In four semesters that Mind Games has existed, SWOSU has advanced to at least the semifinals in each tourney. SWOSU won the 2012 spring semester title and the 2012 fall semester team finished as champion runnerup. Members of the 2013 spring semester team are (from left): Mackenzie Bergagnini, Ponca City; Connor Holland, Duncan; Zeke Mills, Springfield MO; Keegan Coon of Davenport; and Will Robinson, Canton.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's "Mind Games" team will play a semifinal match this Sunday, May 12, in the 2013 spring semester tourney.

The match will air at 6 p.m. on KSBI-TV in Oklahoma City. The opponent is Northeastern State University.

Mind Games is an Oklahoma academic challenge competition, a buzzer quiz game based on knowledge in all academic fields. Sixteen Oklahoma colleges and universities have competed this spring, and students compete for scholarship money.

Members of the SWOSU team are: Zeke Mills, Springfield MO; Connor Holland, Duncan; Mackenzie Bergagnini, Ponca City; Will Robinson, Canton; and Keegan Coon of Davenport. Coach of the SWOSU team is Dr. Fred Gates, who is associate professor of history in the Department of Social Sciences.

In four semesters that Mind Games has existed, SWOSU has advanced to at least the semifinals. SWOSU won the 2012 spring semester title and the 2012 fall semester team finished as champion runnerup.