

SWOSU Climbers Fare Well in Competition

04.30.2009

Fifty climbers from five universities competed in a recent rock-climbing competition held on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University campus in Weatherford.

Students from SWOSU, Oklahoma State University, University of Central Oklahoma, Oklahoma Baptist University and the University of Oklahoma competed in the event. Several people from Dallas (TX) also participated in the competition, which was held at the SWOSU Wellness Center rock wall.

The toughest division-open-was won by SWOSU student Morgan McNeill. Finishing second was Alex Keiser of OU.

Other division winners were:

Men's Advanced

1st	Luke McCullum	SWOSU
2nd	John Gilliland	OSU

Women's Advanced

1st	Kelsey Gee	SWOSU
2nd	Becca Nelson	SWOSU

Men's Intermediate

1st	Roger Butts	SWOSU
2nd	Curtis Stinnet	SWOSU

Women's Intermediate

1st	Keli Thomason	OSU
2nd	Temper Hursh	SWOSU

Men's Beginner

1st	Jesse Holcomb	SWOSU
-----	---------------	-------

Women's Beginner

1st	Rachel Shropshire	SWOSU
-----	-------------------	-------

SWOSU climbers will be traveling to Oklahoma Baptist University this Saturday, May 2, for a competition in Shawnee.