

MYTHOPRINT

The Monthly Bulletin of The Mythopoeic Society

Vol.17 No.4

SEPT. 1980

New Whole No. 4

Editorial

I hope you have noticed that we have a new column this month. The idea is for Quotes to be mostly about our three authors, usually from a source that most of us do not usually get. Quotes will show up when quotes show up, the submitters of same will have their subscription extended 1 month for each first submission that is used.

We are also hoping to have a MythCon XI Final Report section next month from the people who went to the convention. If you were at MythCon XI, please send your submissions to me as soon as possible. Remember, your subscription will be extended by one (1) month if we use your submission.

Your humble Managing Editor,
Lisa Deutsch Harrigan

There will be a MythCon X party at OctoCon. Mark your calenders.

QUOTE

"For twenty years now, modern fantasy has been almost overwhelmed by J.R.R. Tolkien's THE LORD OF THE RINGS, the book that proved that fantasy in the 20th century A.D. was no more limited to children's stories than it had been in the 20th century B.C. When our 20th century is over and the 21st rolls around, THE LORD OF THE RINGS will probably remain what it is today - the one book every modern fantasy writer must read, and the one book that no modern fantasy writer should try to imitate."

Source: "What Do They Mean, SF?" by Gene Wolfe. First printing "The Writer" Magazine, Boston, MA. Aug. 1980 issue.

Mythopoeic Conference

MythCon XII will be at Mills College in Oakland, California. The theme for next year is "A Festival of Faerie". Memberships are $10 until March 1, 1981. Memberships and requests for information should be sent to: MythCon XII, c/o Diane L. Paxson, [REDACTED].

Please continue to look in this space for further information.
