

SWOSU Plans Block Party and Dance this Thursday

08.22.2017

A Back to School Bash Block Party is planned this Thursday, August 24, for all Southwestern Oklahoma State University students as part of Dawg Days activities on the Weatherford campus.

SWOSU ResLife hosts the annual block party on Burton House lawn, just south of the Al Harris Library. Activities start at 5 p.m. and run to 9 p.m. The event includes free food, inflatables, live entertainment and is free to all current SWOSU students.

After the Block Party, the festivities will move inside to the Memorial Student Center where there will be a live D.J. and dance. The dance will end around midnight.

Additional information is available by contacting the ResLife Office at 580-774-3024.
