

KOCO-TV Coming to Weatherford, SWOSU

07.14.2006

Southwestern Oklahoma State University will host a welcoming ceremony for KOCO-TV Channel 5 this Tuesday, July 18, at 11 a.m. on the Weatherford campus.

KOCO-TV will be in Weatherford that day for various activities. The Oklahoma City TV station will air their 5 and 6 p.m. news programs in downtown Weatherford.

Brian Adler, director of the SWOSU PR & Marketing Office, said everyone is invited to the ceremony at SWOSU, which will be held on the south side of the Stafford Center. Weatherford Chamber of Commerce officials want as many people as possible to attend.

SWOSU President John Hays, Weatherford Mayor Mike Brown and Weatherford Area Chamber of Commerce President Marty Lockstone as well as Channel 5 representatives will speak at the brief ceremony.

KOCO-TV will be back on the SWOSU campus later in the afternoon during the tour of Weatherford.
