SWOSU Pharmacy Students Tour Cosmetic Specialty Labs

Photo Caption: These first-year pharmacy students at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford recently toured Cosmetic Specialty Labs in Lawton as part of a course taught by Dr. Hardeep S. Saluja.

A group of Southwestern Oklahoma State University first-year pharmacy students recently visited Cosmetic Specialty Labs in Lawton.

According to SWOSU Associate Professor of Pharmaceutical Sciences Dr. Hardeep S. Saluja, the tour was part of his course activity.

“The visit aimed in providing practical, work place prospective beyond academics to first year pharmacy students,” Saluja said. “It helped students to solidify, enhance and appreciate the fundamental principles employed in developing cosmetics and over-the-counter products.”
