

Wal-Mart Donates Exam Review Books to SWOSU Seniors

06.12.2007

Wal-Mart recently donated NAPLEX (North American Pharmacist Licensure Examination) review books, Review of Pharmacy (Appleton & Lange), to the Southwestern Oklahoma State University College of Pharmacy and the Pharmacy Alumni Association. The books were distributed to pharmacy graduates at the recent SWOSU College of Pharmacy senior recognition ceremony in Weatherford by SWOSU Pharmacy Alumni Association Council members Janet Seratte and David McGehee along with Deanne Smith of Wal-Mart. Making the presentation of books were (far right) Wal-Mart Pharmacy District Manager Jennifer Engles and Wal-Mart recruiter Deanne Smith. Accepting for SWOSU COP were Alumni and Development Officer Patti Harper; Associate Dean David Ralph; and Dean Dr. David Bergman. Other council members in attendance were Dorothy Gourley, Lance Richards, Patricia Rodgers and David Warden.
