

SWOSU to Participate in Forum on Internationalizing U.S. College Campuses

06.16.2014

Dr. Randall Beckloff, coordinator of international student affairs at Southwestern Oklahoma State University, will participate in the 5th annual EducationUSA Forum June 23-25 in Washington D.C.

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the EducationUSA Forum will bring together 550 university representatives with over 60 EducationUSA regional educational experts and advisers from around the world to discuss strategies for helping international students to study in the United States and promoting U.S. Study abroad.

The EducationUSA Forum offers practical information and strategies to help internationalize U.S. campuses. Workshop sessions, presented by international education experts, U.S. higher education representatives, and government officials present unique and valuable information on recruiting international students and supporting diversity in international education.

EducationUSA is the U.S. Department of State-supported network of hundreds of advising centers around the world. Each year, EducationUSA advisers provide millions of international students with accurate, comprehensive and current information about how to apply to U.S. colleges and universities.

For additional information, Beckloff can be reached at 580.774.6172 or randy.beckloff@swosu.edu.