I STUDY THE CLOCK

By: Tyler W. Burch

I study the clock,
As it goes tick, tock.
I follow its rhyme,
With the passage of time.
It moves along,
No care for the season.
It causes no wrong,
It knows only reason.
I study the clock,
As it goes tick, tock.
I watch minutes go by,
But I know not why.
It seems to tower,
But also to sway.
It counts every hour,

In its usual way.

I study the clock,
As it goes tick, tock.
I ponder its place,
As it keeps its pace.
It seems to run,
But then it walks.
It has its fun,
For it always talks.
I study the clock,
As it continues to mock.
It reminds me of the strife,
That we go through in life.
I hope it will find,
A way for an end.
I hope it is kind,
And allows all to mend.
