

Rotary Defeats Kiwanis in Blood Drive Held at SWOSU

06.28.2011

Rotary Club defeated the Kiwanis Club in a friendly battle during the recent summer blood drive held on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Over 100 people participated in the annual summer blood drive held at SWOSU.

Kiwanis Club and Rotary Club members were seeking people to give blood in their clubs' names to see which club could get the most blood donors. The drive was conducted by the Oklahoma Blood Institute.
